

K-Love has made an impact on me and my family. In Cincinnati we had only 1 good christian radio station until K-love came around and gave us an alternative. It had such an impact that when I moved to Collierville, TN I started to listen online since they didn't have a nearby station. If you change the way FM operates it could take away my family's options in Christian radio.